- Musical is going well, for January we will be working on set building most Saturdays.
- Props are needed for musical, will get this on the music booster website

Band Council (Band Council President, Julianna Voelker)

- The TOR trip was a huge success, some things didn't go as planned but that is to be expected with such a large number of people on the trip.
- Met Force did an amazing job as well as the students, thank you.
- Chilirific is coming up, all jazz is performing along with all the bands
- Alumni pep band is 1/13, don't even have to sound good and we can get you an instrument, think about joining us.
- Other pep band dates, 1/20, 1/28, 2/3 and 2/10
- Solo and Ensemble coming before we know it, student are hard at work practicing their music

Band (Mr. Busch-Director of Bands)

- TOR pictures are going around the order information and cost will be coming out shortly.
- Positive feedback from the TOR trip:
 - Mr. Pach received an email from a former WI resident that was staying at the hotel, with very nice compliments to the whole band on their behavior and representing Pulaski on the trip.
- Home opener for the GB Blizzard's game-MCL owns the GB Blizzards and we will be performing as a thank you for all their help getting us to Pasadena and they will be giving back to the band with every ticket we sell $15, $5 will go back to the band. March 12, 2017 mark your calendar, students will not have to buy a ticket to get in.
